

STATEMENT OF WORK

These specifications, along with the accompanying drawings, describe the requirements for a repairs to a roof system at a Remote Transmitter / Receiver (RTR) HOU(A) site at Houston, Texas, Hobby International Airport; removing and replacing damaged metal roofing system as well as gutters and ventilation as indicated by the drawings and as shown on pictures specified herein, site roofing system is be restored back to original state or better.

- B. Contractor shall furnish all plant, labor, equipment and material, supplies and transportation required to perform the work in strict accordance with the drawings and specifications.
- C. The construction site is located at Houston, Texas. This is an active airport and the Contractor shall comply with all procedures, rules and regulations of the City of Houston.
- D. The construction site is located in an areas having developed construction. Utilities are existing on, or adjacent to the site. Only modifications of and extensions to these utilities shall be made by the Contractor as indicated on the drawings.
- E. The work consists of removing certain damaged metal roof parts; adding a metal roof system and repairing or replacing ceiling materials that has been water damaged. The ceiling must be sealed and painted back to its original state.
- F. This work shall be accomplished using Specification SW-2233 and the project drawings listed in Appendix "B" of the specifications.